Subject: Increment Letter.

Based on the Company's performance, team performance and your individual contributions, we are pleased to award you the following salary increment effective 01st April 2022.

Although the market continues to be increasingly challenging, volatile & highly competitive, we are sure that we can achieve far greater success by improving our competencies, efficiencies and execution skills.

Individual and collective performance improvements are a key driver for our growth.

The Company is capable of achieving ambitious growth targets which can only be possible through a "High Performing Team". We encourage you to contribute through sustained excellence and become a key driver and enabler of the Company's growth and in turn enjoy the benefits of our joint efforts.

We are confident that each of us can achieve a lot more both individually & collectively.

Certain key ingredients of our behavior, attitudes, communication, actions and performance are the corner stone to ensure that the Company consistently achieves the targeted growth both for this financial year and in the years to come and are now fundamental to our culture and value system and the same are attached herewith as ANNEXURE 1. You are requested to study the same carefully and ensure that you consistently abide and deliver the same in every thought, plan and action/execution.
